

Move On Up A Little Higher

One these mornings, Soon one morning
I'm gonna lay down my cross, Get me a crown

Soon one evening, Late in the evening
Late in the evening, I'm going home to live on high

[Repeated stanza]:

Soon as my feet strike Zion
Lay down my heavy burdens
Put on my robe in Glory
Goin' home, one day, and tell my story
I been coming over hills and mountains
Gonna drink from the Christian fountain
You know, all of God's sons and daughters,
that morning Will drink that ol' healing water

And we gonna live on forever; We gonna live on forever!
We gonna live on, up in Glory after while.

I'm goin' out sight-seeing in Beulah
March all around God's altar
Gonna walk and never get tired
Gonna fly, Lord, and never falter

Move On Up A Little Higher

I'm gonna move up a little higher -
Gonna meet ol' man Daniel.
I'm gonna move up a little higher -
Gonna meet the Hebrew children.
I'm gonna move up a little higher -
Gonna meet Paul and Silas.
I'm gonna move on up a little higher -
Gonna meet my friends and kindred.
I'm gonna move on up a little higher -
Gonna meet my loving mother.
I'm gonna move on up a little higher -
Gonna meet the Lily of the Valley.
I'm gonna feast with the Rose of Sharon.
It will be always howdy howdy [3 times]
And never goodbye

Oh, will you be there early one morning?
Will you be there, somewhere 'round the altar?
Will you be there, oh, when the angels shall call the roll?
God knows I'll be waiting.
Yes, I'll be watching somewhere 'round the altar.
Well, I'll be waiting, oh, at the beautiful,
yes, golden gates.

[Repeated Stanza]

Meet me there, early one morning.
Meet me there, somewhere 'round the altar.
Meet me there, oh, when the angels shall call God's roll.
