

Te Alabo (I Praise You)

When I am in anguish and trials and temptation wants to imprison me,
the Holy Spirit guides me; He sustains,
and He does not let me fail.

I praise You; I praise You;
and my soul doesn't get tired of praising You.
I praise You; I praise You,
as long as life exists in my being.

I praise You, Lord; I praise You because You are precious to me, because I am walking beside You,
because I feel Your Presence in my being...
