

Paz en la Tormenta (Peace in the Storm)

When you cry for the times that you've tried,
and you try to forget the tears you've cried...

You only have sorrow and sadness. The uncertain future awaits you.

You can have peace in the storm.

You can have peace in the storm, faith and hope when you can't go on.

Even with your world broken in pieces, you can have peace in the storm.

The Lord will guide your steps. You can have peace in the storm.

Many times I've felt like you:

My heart longs for something real.

The Lord comes to me, and He helps me to go on with peace in the storm.
