

Gozo, Gozo (Joy, Joy)

Joy, joy, the joy that I wanted, but I sought it where it didn't exist.
But Christ, the Giver of Life, came, and He gave me the joy I wanted.

Fount of life that I found when I came to Christ for the first time.
And I wouldn't change Him, my brother, for anything.
He saved my life and changed my soul.

I know a man of power. He will help me to triumph.
He will help me to overcome. His name is Jesus.
He's stronger than the wind. His Glory is greater than the sea.
His love never ends. I can trust in Him.